

LIFE IN THE METROPOLIS.

DASHES HERE AND THERE BY THE

Slade and Mitchell to Fight Sept. 11—Mitchell to Spar Sullivan in Madison Square Garden—Last Night's Sparring Exhibition.

The agreement signed by Slade and Mitchell stipulates that they shall fight for $2,500 a side, within 900 miles of Kansas City, on Sept. 11. Harry Hill was made final stakeholder and referee, and $100 forfeit was put in his hands when the agreement was made. Mac-that they took refuge in the house, and proposed to him that he should go to the city, and see that the papers were not published. He agreed to do so, and he went to the city, and he saw that the papers were not published. He then returned to the house, and he found that the papers had been published. He then went to the city, and he saw that the papers were not published. He then returned to the house, and he found that the papers had been published. He then went to the city, and he saw that the papers were not published. He then returned to the house, and he found that the papers had been published.

[illegible]

[illegible]

and who was detained at the Police Central Office on the 11th inst. by the Police Superintendent, Mr. J. Patterson at Jefferson Market, where she was landed overboard. She was taken to the Police Central Office by Police Detective Pielis and Justice Patterson, who brought the girl in a respectable looking house.

The Signal Office Prediction.

Increasing cloudiness and rain, easterly to westerly winds, lower barometer, slight rise in temperature.

SPARKS FROM THE TELEGRAPH.

Leonard Sylva Jules Sandeau, the French novelist is dying.

It is predicted by Prof. Borokin that the cholera will prevail in Syria this summer.

A note for the Garfield Memorial Hospital has been purchased for $37,000 in the suburbs of Washington.

Two men have been charged with the murder of the Fair Prophet have captured Khartoum, in the Sudan.

Niklas W. Brooks, a prominent citizen of Norwich, Conn., has been elected to the office of Mayor of that city.

Edward Judson, the eccentric caricaturist, who also is a well known artist, has been elected Mayor of New York.

The United States steamers Tallapoosa and Yantic sailed from Savannah yesterday, the former for Hampton Roads and the latter for Tybee.

New York on Monday to open bids for Indian supplies. These supplies will cost about $2,500,000.

A fire at Aurelia, Iowa, yesterday morning destroyed the town's main store, the home of Mrs. J. W. Peterson, and a garage. The estimated damage is $100,000. Almost the entire business portion is gone.

The total acreage of wheat in Minnesota this year will be fully 2,500,000, and in Dakota 1,500,000. It is calculated that the crop of wheat in the entire United States will be 10,000,000 bushels, as compared with 12,000,000 in 1932.

Lucy Garland, a white woman, has been committed to the insane asylum at Salem, N. J., for insanity. She had been found in a field, and the child's body was found buried in a fence corner. The child's head was thrust into an old copper pot.

In the 20-yard hand-pick race between the running backs of the Chicago Bears and the Pittsburgh Pirates, James Stokes and Arthur Chandler, at Pauline Park, Philadelphia, yesterday, the former won by one and one-half seconds.

The alleged box of dynamite sent from Newark, N. J., by the Adams Express and turned over at Chicago to the American Express, to be delivered to Milwaukee, Wis., was found to contain a brick yesterday, and the brick was broken.

The Grand International Steeplechase (handicap) at the Sandown Park Club meeting yesterday was won by Mr. A. Yates's five-year-old Albert Cecil. Lord Yarborough's aged Montauhan came in second, and Mr. E. Smithwick's six-year-old Standard third.

The American Export and Warehouse Company has just been formed in Cincinnati for the purpose of exporting whiskey in bond and warehousing abroad. The principal office is in Louisville. Their first vessel leaves Newport News, Va., on May 4. Nearly all of the leading distillers and shippers of the West are stockholders.

